Foundation Stage Training Adult Child Interaction

A half day training course for Early Years Practitioners

Adult child interaction style can have a significant impact on children's language development. Good language learning environments are essential and can be developed by adapting the way we interact with young children. Come along and find out how!

Wednesday 28th March 2018 9.00am - 12.15pm

Bishops Wood centre, Crossway Green, Stourport on Severn

Essential training for early years practitioners

The half day sessions includes:

- Background information about the importance of adult-child interaction
- Interaction styles and observation tools
- Strategies for letting the child lead and for becoming a tuned in partner
- Questions or comments?
- Using adult child interaction to extend language
- Competences at a universal and enhanced level of the Speech, Language and Communication Framework.
